Re: Docket No. 05 11596 (JUDGE WOLF)
Docket No. 05 11597 (JUDGE WOLF)

Dear Ms. Boyce:

As you suggested, I am writing to you again to request a speedy processing of the above-referenced cases. Both cases resulted from the failure of the U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services to adjudicate my clients' Applications for Naturalization.

Both Mr. Kofman and Mr. Bratslavskiy made their respective applications to become citizens of the United States, and in both cases, there has been an unreasonable delay by the Government. Mr. Kofman has been waiting for 1.5 years since the date of his naturalization interview, and Mr. Bratslavskiy has been waiting for over 3 years since his interview. Numerous attempts by my clients and myself to contact the USICS directly resulted in no responses by the Government.

Kindly issue the Notices of Default for both cases at your earliest opportunity, so that my clients can finally receive the immigration benefit they are entitled to under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

If you have any questions, or require additional information, please give me a call

Respectfully yours,

Gregory Romanovsky
